regarding voting irregularities in november 2004 election, if more local representation would have been allowed, meaning if fcc didn't just give it all to the big boys, maybe we the american people would have been apprised of the extreme voting irregularities in the november 2004 election. frankly, the big boys did a lousy job of coverage.

the presence of others, instead of just the big boys, could have changed the union's perspective to see hey all of our votes should count. just because the big boys's profit margins have to be met, does not mean the truth has to be not told, not heard, not recorded, not reported.

please open up the media asap; liberty depends on it.

thank you.
